Palindromes are words or sentences that read the same backward or forward.

- A nut for a jar of tuna.
- Borrow or rob?
- Do geese see God?
- Go hang a salami. I'm a lasagna hog.
- A man, a plan, a canal: Panama!
- We panic in a pew.
- Never odd or even.
- Are we not drawn onward, we few, drawn onward to new era?
- Madam in Eden, I'm Adam.
- Murder for a jar of red rum.

Two guys were out walking their dogs on a hot day when they pass by a pub. The first guy says, "Let's go in there for a pint."

The second guy says, "They won't let us in with our dogs."

First guy: "Sure they will; just follow my lead."

The first guy goes up to the pub, and sure enough, the doorman says, "I can't let you in here with that dog." He replies, "Oh, I'm blind and this is my guide dog." The doorman says, "Okay then, come on in."

The second guy follows his lead does the same thing. He goes up to the pub, and the doorman says, "You can't come in here with a dog." He replies, "I'm also blind and this is my guide dog." The doorman responds, "You have a Chihuahua for a guide dog?" The second guy stops for a second, and exclaims, "They gave me a Chihuahua?"

After a talking sheepdog gets all the sheep in the pen, he reports back to the farmer: "All 40 accounted for." "But I only have 36 sheep," says the farmer. "I know," says the sheepdog. "But I rounded them up."

What's the difference between a horse and the weather? One is reined up and the other rains down.

I'm directing a cowboy film called "The Sun"
It's set in the west.

Two men have been lost in the desert for weeks and are at death's door. As they stumble on, hoping for salvation in the form of an oasis or something similar, they suddenly spy, through the heat haze, a tree off in the distance.

As they get closer, they can see that the tree is draped with rasher upon rasher of bacon. There's smoked bacon, crispy bacon, life-giving juicy nearly-raw bacon, all sorts. "Oh my, Pepe" says the first bloke. "It's a bacon tree! We're saved!" "You're right!" says Pepe.

So Pepe goes on ahead and runs up to the tree salivating at the prospect of food. But as he gets to within five feet of the tree, there's the sound of machine gun fire, and he is shot down in a hail of bullets. His friend quickly drops down on the sand, and calls across to the dying Pepe.

"Pepe! Pepe! What on earth happened?"

With his dying breath Pepe calls out, "Ugh, run, run! It's not a Bacon Tree...it's a Ham Bush"

The joy of Grandparents:

Your kids are becoming you, but your grandchildren are perfect!

Going out is good, coming home is better.

You forget names, but it's okay because some people forgot they even knew you!

The things you used to care to do, you aren't as interested in anymore, but you really do care that you aren't as interested.

You sleep better on a recliner chair with the tv on, than in bed. It's called "pre-sleep".

You miss the days when everything worked with just an "on" and "off" switch.

You tend to use more 4 letters words like, what? When?

But old is good in some things: old songs, old movies, and best of all, old friends!
